EXHIBITION POST OFFICES

Three post offices operated temporarily on the Exhibition site for the use of organisers, exhibitors and visitors. Mail posted at these offices received one of three special datestamps: 'Budapest Kiallitás 1 SZ.' (Exhibition no.1) and 'Budapest Kiallitás 2 SZ.' (Exhibition no.2) or 'Budapest Kiallitás 3 SZ.' (Exhibition no. 3), each with various control letters. According to A Magyar Alkalmi Bélyegzések Katalógusa by Mihályfi Ernö, Mabéosz, Budapest 1988, pages 27 and 28, 2 SZ. and 3 SZ. were in use until 31 January 1897.

Budapest Kiallitás 1 SZ. (C)
Foreign rate (5 kr) Millennium postal stationery card (showing the Renaissance Palace) sent from the exhibition to Effretikon, near Zürich, Switzerland.

Budapest Kiallitás 2 SZ. (C)
Exhibition picture postcard franked with a 2 kr stamp and sent from the exhibition to Kietzing bei Wien, Austria.

Budapest Kiallitás 3 SZ. (A)
Inland rate (2 kr) Millennium postal stationery card (showing Pozsony), sent from the Exhibition to Ős-Budavár post office, marked 'PR' (post restante). The card also has a Budapest – Ős-Budavár datestamp of a few days later.