

3.2. Epilogue (1904-1918): World War I.

Being directly on the border soldiers took over the village from tourists. The post office and the railway station became directed by the Austro-Hungarian military forces.

Picture postcard from 12th March, 1918 to Budapest (Hungary), forwarded by field post with cancellation „K.u.K. Bahnhofkommando in Predeal”.

Picture postcard from 18th December, 1916 to Saarbrücken (Germany), forwarded by field post with cancellation „Oberkommando der 9. Armee”.

Predeal and the „2nd period of the Hungarian Post in Romania” was completely ruined by the war. The idillic picture of the border has changed forever.
