

7.3 AIRMAIL PARCEL SERVICES UP TO 1939

The ability to send parcels by airmail started in 1926, and while possible, was probably scarcely used until after WWII, primarily because of the expense. It would have been seasonal initially, and limited to countries where regular flights were taking place. The following procedural and cost data have been obtained from the PTRTs.

PTRT 42, 25.09.1926: Opening of airmail parcel traffic. Starting from September 25 of the current year, airmail parcel traffic with Austria and Turkey will be opened, under the following conditions:

1. Weight and volume. The weight of parcels that can be transported by airmail may not exceed 10 kg. and their volume in any direction may not exceed 60 cm.
2. Declaration of value. Airmail parcels cannot be provided with a declaration of value.
3. Fees. The fee for airmail parcels is formed by the terminal fee for the recipient and the country of destination, the airmail surcharge for the airline, possibly a special air fee for the country of destination, and any additional fees (express delivery, return receipt, price list, etc.) that may be stipulated. The charges, determined in gold francs and to be collected on the basis of the ordinary parcel equivalent, are as follows:

4. Marking and transport of parcels in the country. Parcels to be transported by airmail and the corresponding consignment notes shall be provided with an airmail sticker (nyomt. no. 297). These parcels shall be given to each other by the offices, indicating them separately on the delivery list. The consignment note of the airmail parcel shall be forwarded permanently attached to the parcel; however, Budapest office no. 78, no. 42, shall detach these consignment notes and attach them to the documents.

5. Urgent and express airmail parcels. If the sender requests urgent handling of his airmail parcels, the terminal dues of Hungary and the country of destination (listed in columns 3 and 5 of the above statement) shall be collected in triple amounts. For urgent airmail parcels, the express delivery clause is mandatory. In such cases, urgent airmail parcels from the receiving office to the airmail departure station and from the airmail destination station to the delivery office are treated as urgent parcels and delivered by a separate courier.

Other airmail parcels are delivered by a separate courier only if they are marked as express. The sender's attention must be drawn to the advantage of express delivery. Urgent airmail parcels to Turkey cannot be accepted.

6. Exchange service and onward postage. Budapest Office No. 78 operates as an exchange office. All airmail parcels must be directed to this office. This office receives special instructions for calculating the onward postage and for the office to which the airmail parcel should be registered.

7. Customs clearance. The customs clearance of outgoing and incoming airmail parcels shall be carried out by Budapest Office No. 78 in accordance with the instructions given to it.

8. Forwarding and return. Airmail parcels shall be forwarded and returned by regular mail, unless the sender has stipulated that they be handled by air.

9. Reimbursement of charges. For airmail parcels which are sent in whole or in part by regular mail due to a mistake or traffic obstruction, the difference between the charge paid and the charge for a parcel to be sent by regular mail to the relevant destination shall be refunded in whole or in part at the request of the sender.

10. Warranty. The post office shall guarantee parcels to be sent by airmail in the same way as for parcels sent by regular mail.

PTRT 16, 30.04.1927: Opening of airmail parcel traffic with Austria, Germany and Switzerland.

From May 2, 2014, airmail parcel traffic with Austria, Germany and Switzerland will be opened via the aircraft of the Hungarian Air Transport Company under the following conditions:

1. Weight, size and content: The weight of parcels that can be transported by airmail may not exceed 10 kg and their size may not exceed 50x50x100 cm. Gold, silver and other valuables, explosive and flammable and corrosive substances, as well as live animals that give off a foul odour may not be sent in airmail parcels.

2. Declaration of value: Airmail parcels cannot be declared as valuable.

3. Charges: The charges for airmail parcels are formed from a) the terminal charge for the receiving and destination countries, b) the airmail charge for the airline, c) possibly a special airmail surcharge for the destination country, and d) the charges for any additional operations (express delivery, return receipt, list of charges, etc.).

The charges a)—c) are as follows (in Pengő):

Weight, kg	Austria		Germany		Switzerland
	Ordinary	Urgent	Ordinary	Urgent	Ordinary	Urgent
1	1.30	3.20	3.00	5.30	3.90	7.05

10	9.35	12.95	25.05	30.50	28.40	36.70

4. Urgent and express airmail parcels: If the sender requests urgent handling of airmail parcels, express delivery must be stipulated. A. The express charges payable for urgent parcels are included in the above statement, under the urgent charges. On the other hand, other airmail parcels are only delivered at the destination by a separate courier if they are marked as express.

In such a case, the express fee of 90 s. must be added to the above-mentioned fee for an ordinary airmail parcel. The sender's attention must always be drawn to the advantage of express delivery.

5. Marking and delivery of parcels in Hungary: Airmail parcels and their accompanying consignment notes must be marked with an airmail sticker (form number 297). These parcels are handed over to each other by the offices, separately marked on the delivery list. The consignment note of the airmail parcel must be forwarded permanently attached to the parcel. Budapest Office No. 78 detaches these consignment notes and attaches them to the columns.

6. Exchange service and onward postage. Budapest Office No. 78 operates as an exchange office. All airmail parcels must be forwarded here. This office receives special instructions for calculating the forwarding postage for customs clearance and for the office to which an airmail parcel should be lodged.

7. Forwarding and return. Airmail parcels are forwarded and returned by regular mail, unless the sender has also agreed to airmail for the return journey. In such cases, the parcel must be charged with postage.

8. Reimbursement. For airmail parcels that were not sent by airmail due to a mistake or traffic obstruction, the difference between the fee paid and the fee for a parcel to be sent by regular mail to the destination in question must be reimbursed at the request of the sender. If the transport was at least partly by air, no reimbursement is possible.

9. Warranty. The post office guarantees parcels to be sent by airmail in the same way as for parcels sent by regular mail.

PTRT 24, 25.06.1927: New determination of the rates for airmail parcels to Germany and Switzerland. Airmail parcel traffic is opened with the following countries: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Estonia, Latvia, Great Britain, Germany, the Netherlands, Norway, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden and Turkey. The following: charges shall be paid for airmail parcels:

- a) the terminal fee for the country of receipt and destination,
- b) the additional fee for airmail delivery,
- c) the regular parcel delivery fee for the countries that participate in the postal handling of the parcel.

The fees are shown in the statement at the end of this decree. I note that in this statement the fees from a) to c) above are shown summed up and converted into Hungarian forints.

If the sender has requested express delivery or other special handling of the parcel, the fee according to the appropriate tariff shall of course be deducted separately.

The weight of parcels that can be sent by airmail cannot exceed 10 kg. and their dimensions cannot exceed 100x50x50 cm. Every 10 dm³ of the parcels must be considered to weigh at least 1 kg. for the purpose of charging, even if the actual weight does not reach this.

Airmail parcels are forwarded and returned by regular mail, unless the sender or recipient has requested forwarding or return by air and has paid the fee for this, or undertakes to pay it by providing security. The security must be treated as a deposit in the tariff (P. K. U. § 11. points 3 and 5).

PTRT 29, 26.07.1928: Introduction of airmail parcel traffic with the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

With reference to my decree No. 13.340 published in the 14th issue of the PRT of the current year, I have informed the offices that, starting from August 1 of the current year, airmail parcels may also be sent to the territory of the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

I therefore call on the offices to enter in the parcel section of the Schedule of Postal, Telegraph, Telephone and Box Rates for the current year, on the airmail schedule attached to the PRT of the current year, that airmail parcels may also be sent to the territory of the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. The airmail parcel rate table should be supplemented by the following table:

Weight, kg	Airmail parcel charge, Ft
	Simple	Simple, urgent	Bulky	Bulky, urgent
1	1.55	3.45	2.05	4.90
2	2.65	5.70	3.40	8.00
3	3.20	6.25	3.95	8.55

8	7.35	—	8.80	—
9	7.90	—	9.35	—
10	8.45	—	9.90	—

In order to avoid misunderstandings, I would like to mention that urgent packages to the territory of the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes can only be sent up to 5 kg. in weight. The Budapest post offices and the provincial treasury post offices should also correct the announcement regarding the use of airmail traffic.

PTRT 30, 07.08.1928: Opening of airmail parcel traffic with Spain.

In connection with my decrees No. 13,340 published in PRT 14 of the current year, decree No. 23,044 published in the PRT 29 of the current year, I inform the offices that starting from August 10 of the current year, airmail parcels can also be sent to Spain. The parcels will be forwarded via Zurich to Barcelona and Madrid by airmail, and from there to their destination via the Messageries Anglo-Suisses. I therefore call on the offices to record in the parcels section of the cover sheet for airmail attached to PRT 20 of the current year for the Abstract Postal, Telegraphic, Telephony and Radio Tariffs that airmail parcels can also be sent to the territory of Spain. The table of rates for airmail parcels should be supplemented as follows.

Weight, kg	Destination

1	11.80	13.80
2	14.70	16.70
3	19.85	22.85

8	48.20	56.35
9	53.35	62.40
10	58.50	68.55

Urgent and bulky packages cannot be sent. The Budapest post offices and the provincial treasury post offices should correct the announcement regarding the use of airmail.

I hereby inform the offices that, from 10 September of the current year, airmail parcels up to 20 kg. in weight can be sent to Austria and Switzerland. I therefore call on the offices to enter in the parcels section of the airmail cover sheet attached to the 20th issue of the P. R. T. for the Extract of Postal, Telegraph, Telephone and Radio Tariffs, that airmail parcels up to 20 kg. in weight can be sent to Austria and Switzerland. On the back of the airmail parcel rate table, similarly to the rate table for 1-10 kg parcels, a new table should be prepared and the following data should be entered into it:

T. of the current year, I hereby announce that starting from 15th October of the current year, airmail parcels can also be sent to Bulgaria. I therefore call on the offices to enter in the parcels section of the Extracted Postal, Telegraph, Telephone and Radio Tariff Schedule for airmail, attached to the 20th issue of the P. R. The tariff table for airmail parcels should be supplemented as follows, after the previous entries:

On this occasion, I call on the offices to add the above-mentioned cover page and the section entitled "Airmail parcels fee table" The following note should be entered in the upper right-hand corner: "For airmail parcels to countries where urgent parcels can also be sent, the express fee is not included in the urgent fee. Therefore, if the urgent parcel is not addressed poste restante, the mandatory express fee must be charged separately."

The cover sheet for airmail, attached PRT 20 for the current year, for the Abstract Postal, Telegraph, Telephone and Radio Tariffs, only the rates for airmail parcels to European Turkey are indicated. I therefore call on the offices to enter the word "European" before "Turkey" in the airmail parcels rate table. The following rates for parcels to Asian Turkey are entered in the rate table:

Weight, kg	Airmail parcel cost, P
	Ordinary	Bulky
1	4.55	5.70
2	7.80	9.35
3	10.15	11.70

PTRT 11, 10.04.1929: Change in the rates for airmail parcels. The International Air Transport Association has changed the airmail rates for parcels in certain routes, therefore I call on the offices to adjust the rates for airmail parcels to Bulgaria, the territory of the Kingdom of S. Airmail parcel services were disrupted during WWII, and further research is needed for the period after 1939 to understand tariffs.

According to Postatarifák Adók Illetékek Közlekedési Menetrendek vol.41, no.2, 05.06.1948 small parcels (kiscsomag, up to 1 kg) could be sent by air to some countries at the same rates as letters (per 10 g in Europe and per 5 g to non-European countries).
